

THE SCARY MOVIE

It was Saturday morning. Ellie and her friends wanted to [go/ but/ our] see a movie. Ellie's father said [that/ wish/ from] if it were okay with everyone's parents, [it/ he/ am] would take them all downtown to [the/ and/ are] movie theater early. They could walk around [the/ are/ home] stores. He needed to go in to [rant/ stop/ work] and it would be on the [way/ come/ fort].

The other parents gave their permission. [Stew/ Out/ The] kids all piled into Dad's car. [Home/ Rain/ When] Dad dropped them off, he gave Ellie [from/ some/ peas] money. He told them to all [good/ pens/ stay] in one group and not to [talk/ tree/ lost] to any strangers. The girls promised [them/ and/ are] climbed out of the car on Main Street.

[They/ Sort/ Place] went to the movie theater to [when/ check/ pills] on the show times. A comedy [break/ movie/ cheat] was playing in thirty minutes and [of/ so/ a] scary movie was playing in an [roar/ hour/ call]. The girls decided to be daring [or/ and/ boy] wait for the scary movie.

The [meat/ nice/ name] of the scary movie was "The Mummy Walks Again!" [time/ port/ and] the girls thought it would be exciting [sew/ to/ ate] tell their friends about it at [towels/ school/ clowns].

Before the movie started they all [true/ bang/ bought] popcorn, candy, and sodas. They decided [at/ to/ is] sit in the very front row [of/ is/ no] the theater to be up close [to/ ant/ pat] the mummy! The movie was about [so/ two/ a] mummy in Egypt. It came alive [and/ the/ are] began terrorizing the land. The mummy [sat/ was/ lot] greenish-gray with one yellow eye [that/ gone/ blue] stared through the layers of cloth. [He/ Not/ The] would sneak up on people and strangle [copy/ test/ them]. Then he would carry them back [it/ or/ to] his tomb to make them into [half/ self/ fell]- dead mummies too! The girls were [sprang/ ranger/ frozen] in their seats. They stared at [and/ if/ the] horrible monster on the big screen [at/ in/ by] front of them. Ellie needed to [go/ ate/ of] to the rest room but she [tar/ was/ sit] too scared. She placed both hands [hour/ over/ sand] her eyes because she did not [pain/ bugs/ dare] watch the mummy grab the helpless [track/ clean/ woman].

Suddenly, Ellie felt something pull her [hair/ song/ kept] and she screamed! She turned around [sit/ put/ and] found that Beth was hiding in [lot/ the/ sat] row behind her. She glared at Beth, [wise/ face/ who] was laughing, and hissed, "I'll get [plum/ milk/ you] for this!"

After the movie, the [juice/ girls/ where] talked about which scenes had scared [pies/ them/ port] the most. They all decided that [ate/ off/ it] would be a long time before [hack/ clown/ they] saw a monster movie again. "I [rest/ just/ cuts] hope I don't have bad dreams tonight," [said/ read/ head] Ellie, as they waited for Dad [to/ at/ in] come and pick them up.
